

|| ||

M: Course Objectives/Learning Outcomes

At the conclusion of the course the student will be able to:

1. Demonstrate an understanding of the use of such terms as “Developing World” as well as a number of other pertinent anthropological terms and concepts.
2. Discuss the basic history of colonialism and its relation to the current state of the world, and the divisions between the Developed/Developing World.

Course and Subject Number

O: Methods of Instruction

The course will be presented mainly in a lecture format, with a few small group activities.
