

A: Division: Educational and Student Services

Date: 24 January, 1994

B: Department: Student Services and Developmental Education

New Course:

Program:

Revision of Course:
 Information Form:

C: EASL 455

D: College Preparatory Discussion and

Ex. 2

Semester Credit

Subject & Course No.

Descriptive Title

Calendar Description: This course is the final level of

Summary of Revisions:

(Enter date & section)

discussions in a variety of settings. Students will practicing using interactive strategies and complete papers. We wish to improve the ability to research, analyze and make presentations, lead follow-up discussions and evaluate their own, as well as others' performance.

state and defend their positions on controversial issues.

Students completing

Course Number

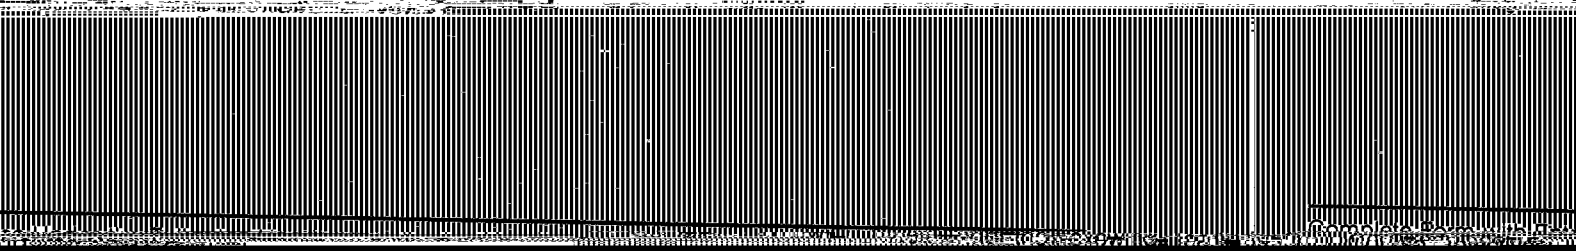

Materials to be Purchased by Students (Use Bibliographic Form):

N. Textbooks and Mat supplied.

Materials to be

Students may be required to purchase a text

of ESL

Study Skills

resentation topic;

- 12. prepare for a presentation
 - a) draw up outline for a p

group;

researching a topic for presentation or discussion;

discussing a general topic