

NAME AND NUMBER OF COURSE

PHI 130 COURSES FOR WHICH THIS RELATED COURSE

course is a prerequisite for a 200 level

Philosophy course or permission of instructor

READING RESOURCES RECOMMENDED BOOKS REFERENCES MATERIALS (IES)

Heidegger and Philosophical Thoughts; Harcourt, Brace; Apatow, William S; Religious He

1965 617-95

Philosophy of Religion: Prentice-Hall, Toronto, 1978 $ 5.25 Hick, John, Philoso

COURSE COORDINATOR'S COMMENTS: METHOD OF EVALUATION

3. Faith, Knowledge and Belief (Hick, Chapters 5, 6 and 7)

- (a) Religious knowledge and the problem of knowledge in general
- (b) Natural and revealed theology
- (c) Faith
- (d) The linguistic veto: the problem of language and meaning

Positivism and Ayer's "Critique of Theology" (see A.J. Ayer, Language, Truth and Logic)

(1)

(see New Essays in Philosophical Theology) (ii) Fleck's challenge

(a) The problem of miracles

Chapter 4)

4. Soul, Death and Immortality (Hick,

(5) Man and death

Meaningfulness (this material will be handed out in class)

5. Religion and the Quest for anti-Christianity

(B) "God is Dead" theology

istic existentialism reconsidered

(i) Kierkegaard's

Hamilton

(ii) Sartre's athe

and Church": Malcolm, Boyd and the Berrigans

(iii) Altizer and H

eology's answer

(iv) The "Undegrou

(v) Classical the

METHOD

divided between lectures and seminars

1. Class time will be equally